

Norman Mallory

Norman Herbert Mallory, the son of William Price Mallory and Susan Jackson Hallock, was born 29 Dec 1877 Meaford, Grey Co., Ontario and died 16 Sep 1899 in Bates, Manitoba

Attended the Nashville Bible School 1897-98 and 1898-99

*****

Canada Notes

Among the late arrivals at the Nashville Bible School from Meaford, Canada, are Mr. and Mrs. John Deegan, Mr. and Mrs. James Trout, Miss Maud York, Miss Emily Falls, W. F. Cox, and John Jay. W. E. Trout, who is in charge of the Commercial Department of the Bible School, came with his wife and child the last of September. From the city of St. Catharines we have Brother Ellis Claus, and from Carman, Manitoba, we have Brothers Stanley York and Norman Mallory. With Brother Whitfield, who has been here two terms, and Brother Mackie, we make up a fair representation from that part of the continent.

Gospel Advocate, November 10, 1898, p. 723.

October FRIDAY 14 [1898]

I sat up a few minutes this morning for the first then I did a little reading and broke my glasses Wrote up my diary Stanley and Norman Mallory came ## from Carman tonight

Mary William Trout Diary, 1898

MONDAY [April] 24 [1899]

Stanley Jackson Mallory & Whitfield left at 7:20 this morning We washed took up carpet & shook it scrubbed all floors all stairs Jones did dining room. I packed tubs James down town. F. W. Smith came this evening preached just grand on We are workers together

Mary Williams Trout Diary, 1899

Mallory

Norman H. Mallory was born in Meaford, Ontario, December 29, 1876; obeyed the gospel during the winter of 1893; and died at the home of his father, in Bates, Manitoba, September 16, 1899; ages twenty-two years, eight months, and seventeen days. Brother Mallory was a young man with bright prospects, and was a good, Christian boy. He attended the Nashville Bible School part of two years with the expectation of preaching the gospel of Christ, but was called home on account of the failure of his health, where he died but a short while after his return. He leaves many friends in the city of Nashville, as well as dear loved ones at home, to mourn his departure.

D. B. M'Canless.

Gospel Advocate, 1900, p. 77